ENTERTAINMENTS.

"Queen Esther."

The participants in the cantata, "Queen Esther," which will be presented at the Opera House Monday evening, May 28, are busy practicing their parts, and everything points towards a successful rendition. The play will be presented entirely by amateur talent, but some excellent voices have been secured. The cast is as follows: King Ahasuerus..... Harry Thompson Queen Esther..... Mrs. Baker P. Lee Haman..... Arch Lipscomb, Jr. Zeresh..... Mrs. J. C. Taylor Haman's child..... Gladys Dedman Prophetess..... Miss Jennie Green Mordecai..... Martin Cox Mordecai's sister..... Mrs. Kate Williams High Priest..... A. B. Rains Hegai..... W. R. Shelton Herald..... H. R. Davis Persian princess..... Miss Marie Hall Median princess..... Miss West Guards..... Messrs. Hastings and Roberts Queen's pages..... King's attendants..... King's pages..... Magi.....

In the opening tableaux, Mrs. Annie McLemore will impersonate "The Banishment of Vashti."

The entertainment of the Cotillion Club last Thursday by Miss Rebecca Williamson was a most charming affair. Quite a number of members of the club and visitors were in attendance, and several interesting games of cards were played, seven tables being arranged for the participants. The score-cards were dainty slips of cards, each bearing a Gibson sketch painted by Miss Williamson. The house was prettily decorated in flowers, the sweet-scented honeysuckle taking a conspicuous part. During the afternoon, delicious ices were served, and afterwards an elegant two-course luncheon was partaken of.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist church enjoyed a most delightful "outing" Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. G. Grant on the Mt. Pleasant pike. The business feature of the Society gave way on this occasion to genuine social enjoyment—the kind which Mrs. Grant, as hostess, inspires. Two elaborate and delicious courses of refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The following young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Sadie Sheegog last Friday evening: Miss Minnie Towler, Sam Harlan; Miss Cornelia Jones, Bruce Cochran; Miss Annie Evans, Will Howard; Miss Ethel Hendley, Dick Chairs; Miss Bessie Moore, Chairs Mayes; Miss Janie Sheegog, W. B. Wooten; Miss Rebecca Williamson, Ernest Farrell.

Miss Genie Mitchell will give a picnic to her Sunday-school class at the old Clifton place south of the city, where Mr. Geo. W. Hayes lives, tomorrow. She requests all her pupils to meet her at her residence on South Main street Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. J. J. Stephenson, of Ashwood, entertained several friends at a beautiful and elaborate dining yesterday.

Old Fiddlers' Contest.

Tickets for the Old Fiddlers' contest, to be given at the Opera House in this city on Friday, May 25, are now on sale at Woldridge's drug-store, and reserved seats will be sold commencing Monday. Those who attend this entertainment will not only help a worthy cause, but at the same time will get their money's worth and be highly entertained. The performers will all be old-time fiddlers and banjo pickers, and their selections will be the old familiar pieces played years ago. All who expect to participate are requested to register their names at the office of the County Court Clerk.

The entertainment is in charge of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of needy ex-Confederates.

There will be two performances—one in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, the other in the evening at 8 o'clock. Admission, 25 cents; children 15 cents; reserved seats 50 cents.

MEETING OF THE DOCTORS.

Middle Tennessee Medical Association

CONVENED HERE YESTERDAY.

Addresses of Welcome Made by Dr. Padgett and Maj. Whitthorne—Discussion of Smallpox Last Night.

[From Thursday's DAILY HERALD.] The twelfth annual meeting of the Middle Tennessee Medical Association convened this morning at 11 o'clock in the hall at Hood's hotel. Dr. J. C. Williamson, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, called the meeting to order, after which Dr. W. K. Shedd, President of the Association, took the chair.

Rev. Baker P. Lee delivered the opening prayer, and addresses of welcome were made by Maj. W. J. Whitthorne on behalf of the city, and Dr. Hazel Padgett on behalf of the Maury County Medical Association. Dr. J. B. Cowan of Tallahoma, responded to Maj. Whitthorne's address, and Dr. Frank Glenn, of Nashville, to Dr. Padgett's.

The Committee on Credentials—composed of Drs. M. C. McGannon of Nashville, Dr. D. B. Cliffe, Jr., of Franklin, and Dr. T. J. Hardison of Carter's Creek—then retired and reported that the following gentlemen desired membership:

C. A. Robertson, Nashville; G. W. Oliver, Groveland; C. C. Hardison, Lewisburg; Frank Foster Smith, Chattanooga; J. A. Edwards, Columbia; C. Y. Clarke, Mt. Pleasant; W. Frank Glenn, Nashville. They were unanimously elected.

The programme was then taken up, the first subject for discussion being, "Minor Injuries of the Eye," Dr. G. C. Savage of Nashville, delivered an interesting address, and Drs. J. T. Edwards, Price and Grady led in the discussion.

The Association then took a recess for dinner.

Discussion To-Night.

It was decided to have the smallpox question, which takes the tenth place on the programme, made a special order for to-night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Deering J. Roberts of Nashville, will make an address on "Differential Diagnosis of Smallpox," and Dr. O. J. Porter of Columbia will talk upon "Smallpox, with Notes on the Epidemic in Maury County." The following physicians will lead in the discussion—Drs. Larkin Smith and J. S. Cain of Nashville, and W. B. Harrison and L. E. Ragsdale of Columbia. The meeting will be open to the public.

The Officers.

The officers of the Association are: Dr. W. K. Shedd of Columbia, President; Dr. Geo. H. Price of Nashville, Vice-President; Dr. Paul Clements of Cross Bridges, Secretary and Treasurer. There are a large number of physicians in attendance from throughout the central portion of the State, and much interest is being manifested. The Association will remain in session throughout to-morrow.

Physicians in Attendance.

Up to noon the following members of the Association had registered their names:

E. H. Jones, J. B. Murfree, Murfreesboro; W. Frank Glenn, A. B. Cook, R. E. Fort, Nashville; Hazle Padgett, Columbia; Russell Perry, Bigbyville; Jas. K. Blackburn, Lynnville; J. S. Cain, Nashville; G. W. Oliver, Groveland; T. J. Hardison, Jameson; C. S. Binkley, Leiper's Fork; E. E. Collins, Williamsport; M. B. Smiser, Collioka; John L. Haywood, Timmons; K. S. Howard, Franklin; Geo. H. Price, Flatrock; Robt. Pillow, O. J. Porter, Columbia; J. B. Cowan, Tallahoma; G. C. Savage, Nashville; C. V. Stephenson, Etina; L. B. Graddy, Nashville; J. S. Edwards, Erin; L. E. Ragsdale, Columbia; J. W. Handy, Nashville; C. Y. Clarke, Mt. Pleasant; C. A. Robertson, Nashville. Leon Shedd, Williamsport.

SAVED WITH A ROPE.

Escape of W. T. L. Morrow, of This County, in a Chicago Hotel Fire.

At the burning of the Hotel Helene in Chicago early Wednesday morning, as a result of which two persons were killed and sixteen injured, a Maury county man had a very narrow escape. An Associated Press dispatch, in speaking of the matter, says:

"W. T. L. Morrow, a farmer, whose home is near Columbia, Tenn., owes his escape to his horror of fires. He was living at the hotel while undergoing medical treatment; and always had a rope under his pillow. When the alarm was sounded he grasped his Bible in one hand and with the other clasped around the rope, which he had made fast to his bed, lowered himself to the ground." Morrow's home is in the Broadview neighborhood of this county. For some time he has been suffering with epilepsy, and several weeks ago he was tried by a Sheriff's jury and pronounced insane and confined in jail. Habeas corpus proceedings were introduced, however, and he was released by Judge Holton. He left for Chicago shortly afterwards to undergo medical treatment, and was said to be rapidly improving. His many friends here hope the shock will give him no serious setback.
